It Might Get Loud

(2008/US; 98 mins., PG) Remarkable live concert and interview footage featuring three generations of electric guitar virtuosos—The Edge (U2), Jimmy Page (Led Zeppelin), and Jack White (The White Stripes)—from their impressive careers and during their first-ever meeting and jam session.

Severe Clear

(2009/US; 93 mins., language/violence) Intimate and often shocking portrait of the U.S. Marines on the front lines in Iraq as told through First Lieutenant Mike Scotti's dvd footage and journal entries.

Speaker:
Kristian Fraga
Producer,
Severe Clear

Soul of a People:

Writing America's Story

(2009/US; 93 mins., not rated) In the grip of the Great Depression, millions survived by swinging picks and shovels for the WPA while thousands wielded pen and paper. Many became some of the century's most provocative voices, including (photo above) John Cheever, and Zora Neale Hurston.

Speaker:
David Taylor
Co-Producer, Co-Writer
Soul of a People
